Version of Interrogation given to Warren Commission By Mexican Government

①

On November 23, 1963, one day after the assassination of John F. Kennedy, the Central Intelligence Agency's Mexico City Headquarters suggested to Mexican officials that they arrest Sylvia Tinalo de Duran. (Mex 7029 to ~~Mexican officials~~, Nov. 23, 1963; Note to Luis Echevarria, November 23, 1963.) Mexico City Headquarters asked that Sylvia Tinalo de Duran be held incommunicado until she gave the Mexican officials all [the information] about Lee Harvey Oswald.

ARRESTED

The Mexican government ~~should demand~~ arrested Sylvia Tinalo de Duran at the same date. Captain Fernando Gutierrez Barnes, Assistant Director of the Federal Security police interrogated her at 6:00 p.m. that evening (CE 2121, p.35). [Ms. Duran stated that she began to become the temporary secretary to the Consul three months prior to the assassination of John F. Kennedy ~~as a result~~ of the death of Maximo Oliveri, who had been occupying ~~the~~ position]. (ibid. p.37) She stated that in late September or early October of 1963, a North American, by the name of Lee Harvey Oswald, applied for ~~an~~ ^{agent at the Cuban Consulate} ^{and} visa to Russia ^{by way of} Cuba. [Oswald presented evidence that he had been in Russia for three years], that he was married to a Russian woman and also that he was ^{the leader} ~~secretary~~ of an organization in New Orleans called "Fair Play for Cuba". [Oswald stressed to Sylvia Duran in facilitating the handling of the Russian visa for Lee Harvey Oswald.

The Russian Embassy ^{Told} ~~assured~~ her that there would be a delay of approximately four months in processing the case, which annoyed Lee

Harvey Oswald since, according to his statements, he was in a great hurry to obtain visas to travel to Russia. (He insisted on his right to do so in view of his background, loyalty and his activities on behalf of the Cuban movement.) (del p.39) When Oswald understood that it was not possible to give him a Cuban visa without his genuinely obtaining a Russian visa, he became extremely angry. At this point, Ms.

^{Bob} Duran stated, she called Consul Aguirre, who, at that time was in his private office [accompanied by his ^{agent} ~~assistant~~ Alfredo Mimbela]. Mr. Aguirre came

Original Signed Statement of Sylvia Duran Interrogation by Mexican Government

Sylvia Duran was arrested on Nov 23 and interrogated at 6:00 p.m. (see previous section) at that time her pertinent statements about the assassination and Lee Harvey Oswald were written down by the Mexican government and Sylvia signed the statement. They were Separate Upon learning about the assassination she and her husband speculated that Kennedy may have been assassinated for racial reasons when she became aware that the assassin was Lee Harvey Oswald, she ascertained that it was the same man that about two months earlier had been to the Cuban Consulate to solicit an intransit visa to Russia, having taken his name from the official documentation he presented: he was married to a Russian woman and belonged to the "Fair Play For Cuba Committee"; she checked the data in the Consulate archives and then she became certain that it was the same individual, who was blonde, short, dressed inadequately and whose face turned red when angry. The visa was denied because, the Consul told her, that to obtain one from the Cuban government it was imperative that ^{giving} he obtain a visa from the Soviet Consulate. Since obtaining a visa from the Soviets took four months and Oswald had to leave Mexico soon, he became excited, and Duran had to call the Consul who had an argument with him.

(The only aid she could give Oswald was be advising that he go to the Soviet Consul, and also calling the person in charge of the office. The Soviet official told her that they would have to consent Moscow, which would take four months. That afternoon, ~~she~~ ^{Harvey} Oswald returned to the Cuban Committee and Sylvia Duran confirmed that he could only get a Cuban visa, ^{only after} when he received a Russian visa she ~~also~~ gave Oswald her name and business phone number but never gave him her address because she had no reason to give it to him.

(She knew that phoning the ^{Soviet} Consulate was not one of her duties and that if she did so she did it only to help Oswald. She gave him her ^{business} phone number only because he would have to call subsequently to check whether he had obtained a visa. He never called back. (Blind Memo re The Harvey Oswald + Sylvia Duran, November 26, 1963, CIA # 473.)

Also, in a cable from the Moscow City Station to Headquarters on Nov. 23, chief of station Winston Scott writes that Cekewarma told him that Sylvia Damon stated that Lee Harvey Oswald showed her a United States passport showing a long stay in USSR. [See chief of Station to Headquarters, Nov. 23, 1963, Mex 7046, CIA No. 426; Chronology of June Coolgasture, entry no. 59, Nov. 23, 1963, CIA No. 638.]

Oswald then left and returned in the afternoon with the necessary photographs. (ibid p. 39)

Explanation: The Select Committee on Assassinations can not explain why this statement is attributed to Mrs. Duran if nowhere in her signed statement she mentions photographs. The only corroborating piece of information the Committee found was that Mr. Eusebio Ayala, Cuban Consul in an interview on ^{the} 22nd of April, 1964, with the House Select Committee on Assassinations stated that Oswald did not bring a photograph on his first visit to the Cuban Consulate and thus was forced to return the following morning with one. (House Select Committee on Assassinations Hearings, 1978, Vol. 1, p. 407)

Oswald insisted on his right to obtain a visa in view of his background, loyalty and his activities on behalf of the Cuban movement. (ibid p. 39)

Explanation: See number three

Mr. Duran stated the ^{she} called Consul Ayala, who at that time was in his private office accompanied by his incoming replacement Alfredo Mirabal. (ibid p. 407)

Explanation: The House Select Committee on Assassinations found no evidence of this statement. It is not in Mrs. Duran's signed statement and Mr. Eusebio Ayala in an interview on

(stated that he was alone in his office when Sylvia Duran called him to speak to Oswald.)

7. Mr. Ayala told Oswald that a person like him, instead of aiding the Cuban Revolution, did it harm. (ibid p 40)

Explanation: It is possible that the Mexican government could assume, in light of the argument between Oswald and Ayala, that Ayala would make such a statement.

8. She also initiated the handling of his visa application by sending it to the Cuban Ministry of Foreign Relations, from which a reply was received in the normal manner some fifteen to thirty days later & approving the issuance of a visa, on the condition that he previously obtain a Russian visa. (ibid p 40)

Explanation: Although ^{the above} ~~this statement~~ is not in Mrs. Duran's signed statement, it actually occurred and the Mexican government could have attributed the statement to her. HOW?

9. Mrs. Duran stated that she does not recall whether Oswald subsequently called her on the Consulate phone number which she had given him. (ibid p 40)

Explanation: Mrs. Duran never made the above statement. In fact in her signed statement she said that she had given him her business phone number because he would have to call subsequently to check whether he had obtained a visa, but that he had never called back.

10. Sylvia Duran stated that all the conversations that she and Enelio Ayco had with Oswald were in the English language since Oswald did not speak any Spanish. (ibid p 40)

Explanation: Sylvia does not state this in her signed statement. The Mexican government and the Central Intelligence Agency both had information from [the tags] that a person who called the Soviet Embassy, allegedly Oswald, spoke Spanish in some of his conversations. (See section on Russian Embassy [tags]) Were those LHO's calls? This is till our conclusion.

11. Sylvia Duran stated that upon seeing Lee Harvey Oswald's photograph in the newspaper, she immediately recognized and identified it as being the same person that she remembered as Mr. Harvey Oswald. (ibid page 40) (Mr. they say the above in her signed statement)

Explanation: Ms. Duran did not write this statement. What she said was that when she became aware that the assassin was Lee Harvey Oswald, she ascertained that it was the same man that about two months earlier had been to the Cuban Consulate to solicit an entrants visa to Russia, having taken his wife from the special documentation he presented: he was married to a Russian woman

C and belonged to the Fair Play for Cuba Committee; she checked the date in the Consulate archives and then she became certain that it was the same individual who was blonde, short, dressed unattractively and whose face turned red when angry. (Blind Memo re See Harvey Oswald & Sylvia Duran, November 26, 1963, CIA # 473) // But in a cable from the Mexico City Station to Headquarters on Nov. 23, 1963, Chief of Station Winston Scott writes that Lehermann told him that Sylvia Duran stated that she had recognized Oswald on TV November 22 and had told her husband, Horacio Duran, about the visits. (Cable Chief of Station to Headquarters, Nov. 23, 1963, Medi 7046, CIA No 426; Chronology of Anne Goodpasture, entry no 59, Nov. 23, 1963, CIA No 638.)

The following material found in Sylvia Duran's signed statement never made its way to the Warren Commission's Exhibit 2121.

When she became aware that the assassin was Lee Harvey Oswald, she ascertained that it was the same man that about two months earlier had been to the Cuban Consulate to solicit an transit visa to Russia, having taken his name from the special documentation he presented. He was married to a Russian woman and belonged to the "Fair Play for Cuba Committee"; she checked the data in the Consulate archives and then she became certain that it was the same individual, who was blonde, short, dressed unelegantly and whose face turned red when angry. (Blod Memo re Lee Harvey Oswald + Sylvia Duran, 12/26/63, CIA #4)

Explanation: The statement attributed to Mrs. Duran in the interrogation report given to the Warren Commission was not the above but the following: Sylvia Duran stated that upon seeing Lee Harvey Oswald's photograph in the newspapers, she immediately recognized and identified him as being the same person that she remembered as Lee Harvey Oswald. However the Mexican govt to the WC state that Duran had described Oswald as blonde + short hair.

2. Sylvia Duran's original statement to the Mexican officials is as follows: It appears that Oswald may have had the argument with the Consul on his first visit to the consulate and that later he returned then that afternoon with photographs to the Consulate and acted in a more congenial manner (sic)

Explanation: This can be explained by the manner the original is written. It is just statements and is not in any chronological order. (This question will be explained when we question her in Mexico City.)

3. The only aid she could give Oswald was advising him to go to the Soviet Consul. (Blind Memo re Lee Harvey Oswald Sylvie Duran 12/26/63, CIA # 473)

Explanation: In Warren Commission Exhibit 2121, received from the Mexican government, it appears that the Cuban fledly rejected Oswald's visa application and never gave him any advice.

4. Although not in Mrs. Duran's signed statement nor in WC 2121, although disseminated to the FBI, State Department and the White House, Headquarters quoted from the Mexican police report of Duran's interrogation: "The Consul then spoke by telephone to the person in charge of that office, and was informed that the case would have to be referred to Moscow and that there would be a four month delay. (Cable Headquarters to CIO, State, White House, DIR 85758) The message above was verified by an interview conducted by the HSCA on [interview] Enarie Agency, 12/23/63, p. 23, 1963.

Sylvia Duran stated that Lee Harvey Oswald visited the Cuban Consulate on only two occasions. She stated that the first visit occurred on the morning of a day in either late September or early October. The second visit occurred on the afternoon of the same date. The House Select Committee on Assassinations has determined that ~~these two visits~~ ^(see Report) occurred on September 27th, 1963. A phone call from Sylvia Duran to the Soviet Embassy at 4:05 p.m. that afternoon appears on the transcript

Central Intelligence Agency Cables Re Duran

On November 23, 1963, ⁽¹⁾ The Central Intelligence Agency sent a note to Echavarría requesting that he arrest Sylvia Tinti de Duran. ^{united}
The agency stated that she was a Mexican citizen who had got Oswald in touch with the Soviet Embassy. They give Echavarría a ^{note} with Duran's address, her mother's address, her brother's address, her business offices, ^{aff} her home phone number and her place of work. The Central Intelligence Agency also suggested that Duran be held incommunicado until she ^{could} be questioned on the matter. (Note to Luis Echavarría to arrest Sylvia Duran, November 23, 1963,

(CIA No. 444; Cable re Oswald, Duran, WASH 7029, November 23, 1963, CIA No. 444; Chronology prepared by Anne Hoolyasture, W-7241, entry 36, November 23, 1963, CIA No. 635)

On the same day the Chief of Station, Winston Scott, received a ^{the} phone call from [Jack Whitten] in Washington Langley Headquarters asking that Sylvia Duran not be arrested. Winston Scott told [Jack Whitten] that it was too late, that he could not recall ^{the} request and that the [Whitten] should already have received a cable which stated that Echavarría had already been told to arrest Sylvia, as a Mexican initiative.

(Note - Written by Chief of Station re phone call with [Jack Whitten,] Nov. 23, 1963; Chronology prepared by Anne Hoolyasture, W-7241, entry 37, CIA no. 635)

~~Later, on Nov. 23, 1963~~ (3), Winston Scott telephoned Mrs. Echevarria and stated that he would hope that her arrest would be kept absolutely secret, that no information from her be published or leaked, that all information from her be cabled to Washington immediately through me; and that her arrest and statements not spread to any leftist groups. (Chief of Station phone call to Mrs. Echevarria, Nov. 23, 1963, CIA re-

Chronology: [Anne Woodburn, entry 46, November 23, 1963, CIA No. 636; Flash cable from Kummerow to News at Station, Nov. 23, 1963, DDC 84916, CIA No. 432].

The Central Intelligence Agency's interest in Sylvia Duran is readily apparent. First, hoping to acquire information on Lee Harvey Oswald from Sylvia Duran, they ask the Mexican government to arrest her. [They, fearing that Sylvia Duran's arrest might become public knowledge, thus entangling the Mexican headquarters in Washington, D.C.,] [Jack Whitten] asked Mexico City not to press for Sylvia Duran's arrest. When Washington headquarters informed that the request had already gone out, headquarters thus pressed for "absolute secrecy" from the Mexican government.

Also, on November 23, 1963, (4) Echevarria called the Mexico chief of Station Winston Scott with the first reports of the Sylvia Duran interrogation. He stated that Sylvia Duran had given a (written statement attesting to two visits by Oswald, who showed her U.S. passport depicting a long stay in the U.S.S.R. (see Sylvia Duran writing p. 7). She also stated that she recognized Oswald on TV Nov. 22 and told her husband, Horacio Duran about the visits. (see Sylvia Duran writing p. 9)

On November 24, 1963 in a cable from the Mexico City Station to Headquarters, which consisted of additions or amendments to what Chairman had already told Winston Scott about Sylvia Duran's interrogation, the following was attributed to Sylvia Duran: The passport Oswald showed her was still valid (for the U.S.S.R.). (see Sylvia Duran writing p. 7). Duran had the impression that Oswald had or believed he had made arrangements in Washington whereby instructions would be sent to the Soviet Embassy in Mexico to issue him a Soviet entry visa in a manner by which he would not have to visit the Soviet Embassy himself. (Cable from Mexico City Station to Headquarters, Nov. 24, 1963, Mex 7054, CIA no. 423-424; Chronology of Anne Goodpasture, Nov. 24, 1963, entry no. 71, CIA No. 641.) Though this statement is attributed to Sylvia Duran as early as Nov 24, 1963, it does not appear in either Sylvia Duran's signed statement nor in CE 2121 given to the Warren Commission by the Mexican government.

What appears in the transcripts is that Sylvain had sent the American to the Soviet Embassy stating that his acquiring a Cuban visa was contingent on his previously acquiring a Soviet visa. She stated that the American had informed her ^{from the Soviet Embassy} ~~in Mexico~~ ~~that he~~ that he had been assured that there would be no problem. (Classified staff summary of Review of CIA Documents, 3/2/78, pp 6-7, CIA No. S. 320-321; Cable from Mexico City to the Director, 11/23/63, Mex 7025, CIA Nos. 218-219; CIA Transcript from Russian Embassy, 9/27/63, CIA No. 27.)

On Nov. 24, 1963, Headquarters yet worried about what Oswald, may have told Sylvia Duran about his future plans. In a cable from Headquarters to the Mexico City Station, Headquarters wrote "after analyzing all the traffic and reading the statement one important question still puzzles us. When ^{Oswald} he was in Mexico City in late September and early October to get a Soviet visa and a Cuban travel visa, did he want to travel to Cuba right away, alone, or did his wife join him there and then leave for Cuba, or did he plan to return to the states first and then leave later."

Although it appears that he was then thinking only about a peaceful change of residence to the Soviet Union, it is also possible that he was getting documented to make a quick escape after assassinating the president. Please restudy your [Brennan] material and give us your opinion, and also have Mexican question Sylvia Duran very carefully on this point. Address: (Cable from CIA Headquarters to Mex. City station, Nov. 24, 1963, D/C 84920, CIA No. 412, Chronology of Anne Frank's story, Nov. 24, 1963, only no. 2, CIA)

On November 25, ^{the} CIA Washington Headquarters requested a Mexico City Station cable summary of all station information on Sylvia T. Duran. They also requested that [Stamp - 9] be given as to her knowledge of the Harvey Oswald's contacts with the Cuban and Soviet Embassies. (Cable from CIA Headquarters, Nov. 25, 1963, D/C 84926, CIA No. 403; Chronology of Anne Frank's story)

(November 25, 1963, entry no. 87, CIA No 647).

The Mexico City Station replied to D1884926 on the same day sending the Headquarters all the information they possessed on Sylvia Duran and stating that [Redacted] had disclaimed any knowledge of the Oswald visits. (Call from Mexico City Station to Headquarters, Nov 25, 1963, Mex 7065, CIA No 647; Chronology of Anne Goodpasture, Nov 25, 1963, entry no 88, CIA no 647)

Not only was the Central Intelligence Agency concerned with Mrs Duran's statements but so was the Cuban government ^{also}. concerned. In conversation between ^{House} President Doroteo and Cuban Ambassador Joaquin Hernand Amas, Doroteo asked Kennedy Amas if the Mexican government gave Sylvia Duran any money so that she would say that Soviet Agency had offered money to the American (In Harvey Oswald). (Call from Mexico City Station to Headquarters, Nov 25, 1963, Mex 7068, CIA No 392; Chronology of Anne Goodpasture, Nov 25, 1963, entry no 95, CIA no 648)

In a cable dated Nov 26, 1963, Ambassador Mann requested that Dean Rusk, McCone and Hoover be given the following suggestions from himself, Winston Scott and Clark Anderson: In view of the report from Alvarez Ryndt and the conversation between Doroteo and Kennedy Amas that Sylvia Duran be told that she is the only living man Cuban who knows the full story and hence she is in the same position that

Oswald was in favor to the assassination & she should also be told that her only chance for survival is to come clean with the whole story and to cooperate promptly with the Mexican government in return for Mexican government protection. They also suggest that the Mexicans demand Sylvia Duran immediately so as to eliminate the possibility of her being smuggled out of Mexico to Cuba or killed here. (Cable from Mexico City Station to Headquarters, November 26, 1963, Mex 7072, CIA No. 387, Chronology of Anne Goodpasture, November 26, 1963, entry no. 97, CIA no. 649.)

On November 26, the Mexican government forwarded copies of Sylvia Duran's signed statement to the Central Intelligence agency.
(See previous section)

On November 27, 1963, Washington CIA Headquarters asked the Mexico City Station to request the Mexican authorities to interrogate... Sylvia Duran to the extent necessary to clarify the outstanding points which had been raised in their cables. The previous 48 hrs. Headquarters stated that the Mexico City Station could provide questions to the Mexican interrogators but that they wished that no Americans come in contact with Duran. (Cable CIA Headquarters to Mexico City Station, Nov 27, 1963, Doc 85318, CIA No. 417, Chronology of Anne Goodpasture Nov. 27, 1963, entry no. 121, CIA No. 653.)

(On November 27, 1963, the Chief of Station was notified by Luis Echeverria at 1215 that Sylvia Duran had been arrested because she was attempting to leave Mexico for Cuba. (Cable to Headquarters from Mexico City, November 27, 1963, Mexi 7101, CIA no. 493; Chronology of Anne Horkyphuse, November 27, 1963, entry no. 125, CIA no. 655.)

On November 27, 1963, Ambassador Mann requested the Mexico City Station to pass a cable to Secretary of State, Dean Rusk with three principal developments since the previous cable. (See p. 21 Sylvia Duran write-up.)

- (① involving Alvarado Ugarte and getting him against Duran
- ② removal of Sylvia Duran
- ③ request for arrest of Eusebio Aguirre, Alfredo Muñoz, Luis Coloma and red-headed negro. (Cable Mexico City Station to Headquarters, November 27, 1963, Mexi 7104, CIA no. 481; Chronology of Anne Horkyphuse, November 27, 1963, entry no. 126, CIA no. 655)]

On November 27, 1963, the Mexico City Station sent a photostatic copy of Sylvia Duran's ten page signed statement. (Cable Mexico City Station to Headquarters, November 27, 1963, Mexi 7105, CIA No. 479; Chronology of Anne Horkyphuse, November 27, 1963, entry no. 127, CIA no. 656.)

On November 28, 1963, the Central Intelligence Agency's Washington Headquarters sent a clarification cable to the Mexico City Station stating that they wanted to insure that neither Sylvia Duran nor the Americans got the impression that the Americans were behind her reversal.

(They stated, "if we want the Mexican authorities to take the responsibility for the whole affair." (Cable from Headquarters to the Mexico City Station, November 28, 1963, CIA No. 464; Chronology of Anne Goodpasture November 28, 1963, entry no. 141, CIA No. 658.)

On November 28, 1963, the Mexico City Station sent a cable to the Director of the Central Intelligence Agency stating that [redacted] had reported on Nov. 27, 1963, that Sylvia Dunn's arrest was gather knowledge in the Cuban Embassy. He also reported that on November 25, 1963, when Dunn returned to her office she seemed quite pleased with her performance. She stated that the Mexican police had threatened her with extradition to the United States, she had no fear of confinement.

(Cable from Mexico City Station to the Director, November 28, 1963, Mexi 7115, CIA No. 463; Chronology of Anne Goodpasture, November 28, 1963, entry no. 154, CIA No. 662).

On November 28, 1963, the Mexico City Station sent a cable to the Director of the Central Intelligence Agency stating that the release of Sylvia Dunn on the Government of Mexico's initiative without consulting the Mexico City Station showed a great desire from the Mexican authorities to be of service. The cable also stated that the Mexico City Station had no alternative but to inform Esquivel that

(the Mexico City Station would make no official request for her continued detention; that the decision must be the Mexican government's) (Cable from Mexico City Station to Headquarters, November 28, 1963, Mex 7118, CIA No. 461, Chronology of Anne Goodpasture, November 28, 1963, entry no. 156, CIA No. 662)

On November 29, 1963, Echevarria advised Chief of Station, Winston Scott, that Sylvia Duran had been released at 7:00 p.m. Mexico City time on November 28. Echevarria further stated that Duran is under close surveillance and will be apprehended any time they received information to warrant it. Echevarria also stated that Sylvia Duran still appeared to the Mexicans to have been involved only in the business of financing Cuban and Soviet visas for Oswald (Cable from Mexico City Headquarters to Director, November 29, 1963, Mex 7125, CIA No. 459; Chronology of Anne Goodpasture, November 29, 1963, entry no. 164, CIA No. 663).

^{The CIA D-2 11-83}
On November 29, 1963, asked the Mexico City Station to keep them informed on the status of the interrogations of Sylvia Duran, already listed (and others implicated as early as possible. (Cable Headquarters to Mexico City Station, Nov. 29, 1963, DIR 85672, CIA No. 457, Chronology of Anne Goodpasture, November 29, 1963, entry no. 170, CIA No. 665))

(On November 30, 1963, Headquarters requested the Mexico City Station to relay immediately all the information they received to the FBI Legal Attaché in Mexico. (Cable from Headquarters to Mexico City Station, November 30, 1963, DIR 85712, CIA No. 454; Chronology of Anne Goodpasture, November 30, 1963, entry no. 174, CIA No. 665.)

On December 12, 1963, Headquarters cabled Mexico City Station stating that the Federal Bureau of Investigation was pushing to wind up the analysis of Mexi aspects this case and urgently needs results from the interrogation of Sylvia Duran and her husband during their second arrest. Headquarters conjectured that Duran may not have been interrogated at all during her second arrest but that Mexico City should find out the facts and advise. (Cable Headquarters to Mexico City Station, Dec. 12, 1963, DIR 88642, CIA No. 559; chronology of Anne Goodpasture, Dec 12, 1963, entry no. 251, CIA No. 679.)

On December 12, 1963, Mexico City Station cabled the results of the second interrogation of Sylvia Duran, to Headquarters. (See previous portion, Cable from Mexico City Station to Director, December 12, 1963, Mex 7364, CIA No. 557-8; Chronology of Anne Goodpasture, Dec. 12, 1963, entry no. 252, CIA No. 679.)

On December 21, 1963, Headquarters cabled Mexico that their present plan

(in passing information to the Warren Commission was to eliminate mention of [telephone tags] in order to protect their continuing operations. The Central Intelligence agency will rely instead on Sylvia Duran's statements and on the Soviet Consular files which the Soviets gave the State department. Headquarters stressed that exact, detailed information from [redacted] [redacted] 7. enc. 9. might what Sylvia Duran and other officials said about Oswald's visit and his dealings would be valuable and usable corroborative evidence. (CIA cable from Headquarters to Mexico City Station, Dec. 21, 1963, DIR 90466, CIA No. 549; Chronology of Anne Goodpasture, Dec. 21, 1963, entry no. 268, CIA No. 682.)

On January 2, 1964, Mexico City Station explained to Headquarters that [redacted] [redacted] 7. had nothing additionally to offer beyond account of Mex 7115 (see previous section) except that [redacted] [redacted] HAD said that she WAS officially willing to travel to the United States to confront Oswald if necessary. (Cable Mexico City Station to Headquarters, January 2, 1964, Mex 7115, CIA No. 545; Chronology of Anne Goodpasture, January 2, 1964, entry no. 271, CIA No. 682).

On April 7, 1964, Headquarters called the Mexico City Station that they wished to alert them that three members of Harry of the Warren Commission, Members Willens, Slawson, and Coleman would arrive without publicity on tourist aids April 8 to confer with the Mexico City Station about the investigation taken on the Oswald case. Headquarters also stated that the next

On April 8, 1964, Headquarters called the Mexico City station - that the Warren Commission Staff want to know of the Mexican government has further written investigation words, want clarification of many points in the FBI ^{investigation} and in general want to know of all the possible steps were taken.

Headquarters called that some of the highly touchy subjects they will discuss are (whether they should talk to the Mexican officials themselves, whether they should try to talk to Sylvia Duran in Mexico at the Consulate and whether the Mexicans will let them publish what they did in the whole case. Headquarters also called that the Warren Commission staffers know the Central Intelligence Agency had [top] assets and that they may have gained from the conceal that they had photo joints and [a press in the Cuban Embassy] but that they do not know the details or the Agency's arrangements with the Mexicans. Headquarters further called that the chief of station should lend them all the needed assistance with the minimum

8 Anne Goodpasture, April 8, 1964, entry no. 320, CIA No. 698)

On April 11, 1968, the Warren Commission staffers requested a complete written report of the "measures taken and investigations made" by the Mexican authorities after the assassination. They promised that any portions they wished to publish in the Committee report would be cleared with the Mexican authorities prior to publication. (Cable from Mexico City Station to Headquarters, April 11, 1968, Mexi 8984, CIA No. 528; Chronology of Anne Goodpasture, April 11, 1968, entry no. 333, CIA No. 700)

On May 26, 1968, the Mexico City Station called (to Headquarters) a copy of the official report on Lydia Duran, as a response to the request made to Luis Echevarria, Acting Minister of Education, by the three staff members of the Warren Commission who visited Mexico in April 1968. (DRAFTED to Chief of W.H. Division from Chief of Station at Mexico City, May 26, 1968, H.M.A.-23520, CIA No. 516; Chronology of Anne Goodpasture, May 26, 1968, entry no. 346, CIA No. 705)

In a cable from Headquarters to the Mexico City Station, Headquarters agents On Sept 16, 1968, Lawson of the Warren Commission discussing Lydia Duran's handwriting sample asked if there was information available on the current status of her morale, attitude and ~~and~~ employment. Headquarters also believed that the Warren Commission might want Duran to verify that she signed Oswald's visa application papers.
